REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The Appellants' arguments submitted in the Appeal Brief filed on July 8, 2008 have been found persuasive. The Appellant has successfully argued that the independent claims are limited to specific concentrations of the water; physical solvent and amine in the washing solution (the independent claims are drawn to a washing solution containing 10 to 45 wt % water; 10 to 40 wt. % of a physical solvent and 20 to 60 wt % of an amine). The specific claimed concentrations of the components of the washing solution are not taught or suggested in GB 2 275 625 A. GB 2 275 625 A appears to only generically disclose that a suitable regenerable aqueous absorbent is an aqueous solution of a chemical sorbent such as an alkanol amine, which contains a physical sorbent such as sulfolane (please see pg. 1 Ins. 15-18 in GB 2 275 625 A). However, GB 2 275 625 A does not mention what the concentrations of these components of the washing solution are. Further, the Appellant has persuasively argued that the independent claims are limited to treating a gas stream containing a high ratio of mercaptans to hydrogen sulfide. It is impossible to determine what the mercaptans to hydrogen sulfide ratios are in the gas stream that GB 2 275 625 A treats because GB 2 275 625 A does not disclose any concentrations of hydrogen sulfide, so that it can not be submitted that GB 2 275 625 A treats a gas stream containing a high ratio of mercaptans to hydrogen sulfide. It appears that the process of GB 2 275 625 A only treats a typical natural gas that contains normal ratios of mercaptans to hydrogen sulfide, whereas the Appellant is treating an atypical natural gas that contains a high ratio of mercaptans to hydrogen sulfide.

Any comments considered necessary by Appellant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
